B) Summary of Activities during Academic Year 2008

All social activities big success, voluntary Norwegian language course was successfully initiated. We are still having some troubles integrating Social Committee members into helping with activities.

C) General Assemblies

One General Assembly, approximately 25-30 attendees.
Outcome: new board members elected.

D) Social Activities

Hiking trip to Trolheimen, weekly basement openings and movie nights, rafting trip, paintball match, toga party and voluntary Norwegian language course initiated, all with great success.

E) Cases, Campaigns and Student Politics

Voluntary Norwegian language course successfully initiated where 45-50 students are attending.

F) Comments, Evaluation and Future Improvements

ISU board working very hard, somewhat overworked now. ISU will try and improve delegating tasks to Social Committee members. Better integration of Social Committee members is needed and currently an issue that we are working on. Communication between board members could also be improved as well as the website, another issue that we will work on. Currently we are working on activities (football) for basement table.
