

Constitution

The International Students' Union of Norway

October 2015 Edition

§ 1. Objectives

The International Students' Union of Norway (ISU) is an independent, democratic, non-profit, non-partisan student-run organization that is committed to the interests of all international students studying at institutions of higher education in Norway. ISU embraces diversity and welcomes all students to its activities and proceedings. ISU does not discriminate nor promote on the basis of race, religion, creed, gender, political or sexual orientation, marital status, physical or mental disability, language fluency, nationality or country of origin.

§ 2. Membership

A member of the International Students' Union of Norway is an organization at a tertiary institution with a constitutionally elected board that represents the interests of all the international students at that institution and has been accepted by two-thirds majority of the National Assembly or any of the two Leadership Meetings. A new member branch will automatically receive full voting rights immediately after being approved by the Assembly or Leadership Meeting. Member organizations may be called ISU Local Branches. ISU Local Branches must represent all the international students at its tertiary institution. It must be possible for any international student to run for a position on the board of an ISU Local Branch.

§ 3. Organization

§ 3.1: The National Assembly (NA) is the highest decision making body of ISU. The NA is responsible for the implementation and monitoring of the political platform, the adoption of the following year's action plan, the approval of the annual financial report, according to the budget applied for by ISU and the annual National report of the National Board. The NA has the mandate to give approval of the National Board work and release from any responsibility after the end of their mandate. The National Assembly will be chaired by a person with no active stake in ISU. If a neutral third party is unavailable to act as a chairperson for the NA, then the NA may elect a chairperson from among the delegates who is trusted to show no bias. Under such circumstances, that chairperson will lose his/her voting rights.

§ 3.1.1: The NA consists of:

a) Delegates with speech, proposal and voting rights: Two representatives from each ISU local branch and the all national board members. Voting representatives from each branch can be changed before and during the NA with written notification to the Organizational Consultant.

b) Observers with speech and proposal rights:

- Committee members,
- ISU Organizational Consultant,
- Representatives from potential member branches,
- Candidates for election to the National Board,
- One representative from Norsk Studentorganisasjon (NSO)
- One representative from ANSA (Association of Norwegian students abroad)
- One representative from Studentenes og Akademikernes Internasjonale Hjelpfond (SAIH).
- One representative from Spire (Utviklingsfondets Ungdom)

With a simple majority, speech and proposal rights can be given and removed from one or more specific observers.

§ 3.1.2: The NA can decide when meetings or parts of meetings should be closed-door meeting (including delegates, the secretary, the chair and others when the situation demands) with an absolute majority vote.

§ 3.1.3: NA has the necessary quorum when at least 80% of the delegates are present. Simple majority decides NA's resolution. The number of voters in the room must be counted before the start of each round of voting. No voting delegates are allowed to enter or leave the room until the voting round is completed. If not in the room when discussions start, delegates will not have voting rights for that particular issue. The following procedures require a simple majority of the NA;

- Approval of NA's resolution or resolutions,
- Appointment of a Chairperson to the NA,
- Acceptance of the meeting schedule and agenda,
- Reopening a closed meeting schedule or agenda &
- Accepting changes made to the reopened meeting schedule or agenda.

§ 3.1.4: NA can, with a two-thirds majority vote, deny delegates their rights given to them in §3.1.1 if their branch has violated §§ 3.3.6. They will then get a status as "not elected" and are not included in the 80% quorum-demand.

§ 3.1.5: A vote of 50% or more gives the decision of the National Assembly. All extraordinary proposals that require a vote must be given in writing to the Organizational Consultant.

§ 3.1.6: The National President calls for a National Assembly once each academic year. An extraordinary National Assembly can be called by:

- The ISU National Board according to article 3.2.2
- Two –thirds of the ISU Local Branch Presidents.

§ 3.1.7: The ISU National Board, according to article 3.2.2, calls for at least two or more Leadership Meetings (LM) during each academic year where each ISU Local Branch sends one delegate to discuss issues and follow up on the Plan of Action. The LM has no decision making power over the NA, but the LM has the authority to dictate a plan of action that would be binding until the next NA. The NA will always have the authority to overrule the decision of the LM concerning the plan of action.

§ 3.2: National Board:

ISU National Board (ISU NB) is elected by the National Assembly to be its representative. ISU NB meets at least five times a year. The National Board shall consist of:

1. National President
2. First Vice president
3. Vice president of Public Relations
4. Vice president of Union Development
5. Vice president of Academics Affairs and Welfare.

ISU National Board hires a Organizational Consultant. ISU National Board receives a Plan of Action from the National Assembly. In cases where the National President is not available for important events or periods, the 1st Vice-President shall serve as his/her representative and shall be granted the authorities of National President on an interim basis. ISU National Board members are elected for a period of 1 year, after which new elections are held. No post in ISU National Board may be held for more than two consecutive years at a time. Anyone holding a local board position, who gets elected as NP resigns immediately from the local board. All other NB positions have a grace period of one month within which to resign and help organize elections to fill up the local board position. There is an overlapping period of one month in ISU National Board, after which the incoming elected representatives fully assume the responsibilities of the position.

§ 3.2.1 Duties of the board members:

The National President

- Is in charge of the fundraising for the ISU Norway.
- Supporting the NP, OS and VP of Academic Affairs and Welfare in arranging the Leadership Meetings and the National Assembly.

Vice President of Public Relations

- Is responsible for making ISU Norway visible through the media and other such avenues.
- Leading the contact with other students' organizations in the world.
- Liaising with Webmaster to maintain the website, the Facebook group and other online visibility.
- Monitoring media possibilities for ISU and using them appropriately with approval of the NP, in accordance with the ISU Norway Platform 2009.
- Is responsible for publishing press releases approved by the NB.
- Leading the information campaigns together with the National President.
- Providing local branches with information regarding fundraising opportunities.
- Supporting NP in writing scheduled reports.

Vice President of Union Development

- Is responsible for maintaining regular communication with the ISU Local Branches and being the link between the ISU local branches and NB.
- Supporting the work of the National President in contact with the local branches by visiting the local branches to give them support and assistance, if necessary, with the election of new boards in order to ensure the continuity.
- Leading the work of the Regional Cooperation Groups (RCGs).
- Monitoring the possible enlargement of the organization, if appropriate, for the creation of a new local branch.

Vice President of Academics Affairs and Welfare

- Is responsible for the reception and presentation of cases and petitions from the local branches to NB.
- Tracing the national and regional laws regarding international students and inform local branches.
- Is in charge of bringing issues regarding housing and academic welfare of students to the NB.
- Supporting the NP, OS and 1st VP in arranging the LMs and National Assembly.

Each Vice President should present to the National President, one month before the National Assembly, an annual report of his/her activities. The Board members shall remain in office for a term of one year. The term of office may be shorter on transitional basis to coincide with the National Assembly.

§ 3.2.2 Decision making procedure:

The decisions at the National Board shall be decided by simple majority. In the case of a tie the President has a decisive vote.

§ 3.2.3: The Organizational Consultant:

The Organizational Consultant is hired by a board which consists of the National President, a representative of NSO and the outgoing Organizational Consultant (if this person is available). The National President may also nominate one or more representative(s) of the ISU Local Branches and/or previous ISU branch members to the hiring board. The National President is responsible for the final decision of the board. The duties of the Organizational Consultant are described in a separate Job Description document.

§ 3.2.4: Working Groups:

A Working Group may be formed by the National Board in order to perform certain tasks. Apart from this there shall be Regional Cooperation Groups (RCG), demarcated according to geographical proximity for areas of cooperation among local branches.

§ 3.3: ISU Local Branches:

§ 3.3.1: Every ISU Local Branch has a president who is responsible for its operation.

§ 3.3.2: ISU Local Branches must present a written report on their activities to the NA. Presidents of ISU Local Branches are responsible for the reports to be delivered to the NA.

§ 3.3.3: ISU Local Branches are to work to create an environment at their respective educational institutions where international students can contribute and fulfill their educational, political and social potential. This includes representing international students to local student organizations, local school administration, the ISU National Assembly and ISU National Board.

§ 3.3.4: ISU Local Branches are considered as autonomous divisions of ISU with the exception of §2.

§ 3.3.5: ISU Local Branches can promote their cases to the ISU NA. Case papers should be sent three weeks before the NA.

§ 3.3.6: ISU Local Branches are to be run in a democratic manner, including, but in no way limited to, holding fair and open elections, and operating according to the explicit and implicit intent of the national constitution and the fundamental principles of the organization. An ISU Local Branch can be removed from membership in ISU Norway by a two-thirds majority vote.

§ 3.3.7: ISU consists of the following branches:

Members of partner organizations - anyone: Norwegian or international.

2. If the Constitution Committee members vacate their position, replacement members can be chosen in the Leadership Meeting.

3.4.3.2: Operation and Role of the Constitution Committee:

1. The leader of the Constitution Committee will be chosen from within and by the Constitution Committee, by a simple majority vote. The leader cannot be an Executive Board member and must have at least been a previous member of ISU in whatever capacity.

2. The Leader of the Constitution Committee will have the responsibility to gather suggestions for changes from the National Board, Leadership Members, and at National Assembly meetings. The leader will place the suggestions in one document.

3. The committee makes its decision on the final document with a simple majority vote.

4. Amendment proposals to the constitution will be sent to the National Board at least three weeks before the National Assembly.

§ 3.5: Elections:

A person is elected with a majority of 50% + 1 vote of the votes cast. If there are more than two candidates and none of them receive the necessary majority, the candidate that received the least number of votes is stricken and a new round of elections will be arranged. This will continue until one candidate is elected.

§ 4: Finance:

§ 4.1: The National Board will once a year prepare a Financial Report to the NA for presentation and approval. This Financial Report will contain the audited financial accounts of the previous year and a preliminary budget. In addition the National Board should inform the NA about any major changes in the financial situation that may occur during the financial year.

§ 4.2: ISU receives economic resources from:

- NSO according to the contract between NSO and ISU,
- Ministry of Education and Research,
- Frifond from LNU
- Grants from other organizations and institutes &
- Other sources.

§ 4.3: ISU's financial year runs from 1st January and ends 31st December.

§ 5 Impeachment Procedures:

§ 5.1: Impeachment of the National Board

A National Board member can be removed from their positions by a two-thirds majority of the NA in cases of financial fraud or any other behavior that goes against the constitution or principles of ISU.

§ 5.2: Removal of Organizational Consultant:

The Organizational Consultant can be dismissed from his/her position by a two-thirds majority of NA.

§ 6: Amendments to the Constitution:

§ 6.1: Amendment proposals should be sent to the National Board at least 3 weeks before the NA.

§ 6.2: Amendment proposals require a two-thirds majority of the NA to become statute.

§ 6.3: Amendments to the constitution will come into effect at the close of the voting session.

§ 7: Dissolution of ISU:

Dissolution of ISU is possible if all delegates are present at NA and unanimously decide to dissolve ISU. All property and resources will be returned to their origin.
